

February Newsletter

Rugby

On Thursday the 2nd of February, the pupils from the 3rd and 4th class, took part in a Rugby Blitz in Creggs. The children had a great day!

Texaco Art Competition

Children throughout the school are entering this year's Texaco Art Competition. Fingers crossed there will be a winner among us!

Enrolment Night

We are holding our annual enrolment night on the 22nd of February. This year our 6th class students will be presenting to the parents, showcasing some of the activities the school is involved in.

Knock

On the 15th of February, the pupils from 6th class went on a Retreat to Knock. This retreat will help them in their preparation for their Confirmation in March.

Fr. Breslin

On Saturday the 11th of February, we said a fond farewell to Father Breslin. The children were busy last week preparing art to decorate the centre.

Art Blast

During February, artist Robbie Perry will be working with the pupils from 2nd to 5th, helping them produce their own story with art and sound. We were fortunate enough to receive this support through Athlone Education Centre.

New Pupils

We would like to welcome Summer and Aria to our school, who have moved to the area recently.

Green Schools

This month all pupils in the school will be planting indoors. The children will look after the plants and transfer them outside later in the year.

Active School

Next week, we are taking part in the Feel Good Friday initiative. Music will be played at break time as there is nothing better to improve the move!

JEP

Sixth class pupils are busy working on their JEP project. Last week they had a much needed brainstorming session with Frank Kelly.
